

AITHENT INDIA HR POLICY AND RELATED PROCEDURE

TRANSFER/RELOCATION EXPENSES (WITHIN INDIA) POLICY

Version: 1.0/2014

This document is the exclusive property of Aithent India. Printing, copying, circulation or distribution of this document, or any part thereof without the prior written permission of Office of Professional Management is strictly prohibited.

OBJECTIVE

To define the guidelines for entitlements to employees of Aithent on their transfer to different units of Aithent.

ENTITLEMENTS ON TRANSFER

Whenever an employee is transferred from one unit/location to another, the following transfer expenses will apply.

RL Level	Packing, Loading, Unloading and Transport of Personal effects	Insurance Amount	Travel Entitlement (Self & Family)
RL 7 - RL 10	Up to two truck loads	Actuals	Air (ECONOMY class)
RL 4 - RL 6	Up to one truck load	Actuals	2nd A/C
RL 1- RL 3	Up to one truck load	Actuals	1st class

- 'Family' for the purpose of transfer means spouse & children.
- Reimbursement of all the above bills will be subject to submitting the supporting bills / documents. All arrangements shall be made through the company. The company as per the prior approved estimates shall directly pay bills. In the absence of an Administration Department, an employee would need to get at least three quotations from different agencies towards the same. The above expenses incurred during transfer will be debited to the unit where the executive is being transferred.
- Relocation Expenses
  Relocation expenses to the extent of one month's basic salary will be paid to employees for inter-city transfers.
- Leave on Transfer
  An employee who is transferred will be sanctioned special leave of four days for packing, moving of personal effects and travel of self and family.
- Stay at the Hotel
  Staff who is transferred will be allowed to stay in a hotel (as per his /her entitlement) / company guest house for a maximum period of 15 days.

The Management reserves the right to alter / modify the above mentioned policy at any given point of time.

© 2014 Aithent. All rights reserved.