

AITHENT INDIA HR POLICY AND RELATED PROCEDURE

GRATUITY

Version: 1.0/2014

This document is the exclusive property of Aithent India. Printing, copying, circulation or distribution of this document, or any part thereof without the prior written permission of Office of Professional Management is strictly prohibited.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of this policy is to provide guidelines on the Gratuity payout at the time of separation.

EMPLOYEES ENTITLED

All employees on the payroll of Aithent. This policy shall apply to all employees regardless of their gender. Gratuity Payment made to an Employee as per the Gratuity Act of India.

Service Period: It is the difference between Employee's date of joining and date of relieving. For Rehired Employees, latest date of joining on Aithent is considered for the calculation of Service period.

GUIDELINES

Employees on Aithent India are eligible for Gratuity payout if they have completed minimum 5 years of continuous service period as per the Gratuity Act. In the unfortunate event of death of an Employee, minimum service period is not required for determining the eligibility.

CALCULATION OF GRATUITY

The calculation of Gratuity is as follows:

Gratuity Payable = 15 days' wages * No. of completed years of service

(More than 6 months counted as one year)

$$\text{15 days wage} = \frac{\text{Monthly wages last drawn} * 15}{26}$$

Last drawn monthly Basic Salary: Basic salary payable at the time of separation.

PAYOUT PROCEDURE

Gratuity will be paid at the time of full and final settlements after the separation from Aithent due to resignation, retirement or death on the submission of the Gratuity form in original to HR.

© 2014 Aithent. All rights reserved.