

AITHENT INDIA HR POLICY AND RELATED PROCEDURE

STATUTORY COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES

Version: 1.0/2014

This document is the exclusive property of Aithent India. Printing, copying, circulation or distribution of this document, or any part thereof without the prior written permission of Office of Professional Management is strictly prohibited.

OBJECTIVE

- The Employees Provident Fund is welfare legislation introduced by the Government of India.
- All confirmed employees are members of this Fund and are covered from the first day of their employment in Company.

SCOPE

All employees of Aithent.

GUIDELINES

- Every employee shall make his/her declaration of nominee/nominees in the nomination form, which is available with the HR Department.
- All Confirmed employees are members of this Fund only and are covered from the first day of their employment in Company.
- An employee can withdraw or transfer his / her P.F amount after leaving the organization.

PROVIDENT FUND

The following table shows the areas in which Statutory Compliance is required:

Area	Description
Employees entitled	The present rules prescribe deduction of 12% of basis salary subject, however, to a maximum of Rs. 780/- per month. An amount equivalent to above is contributed by the company towards the fund.
Eligibility for joining P.F.	Confirmed employees of Aithent are eligible for P.F entitlement.
Employer's Contribution	12% of Basic salary or wages. Out of this 12%, 3.67% is towards employee P.F. and balance 8.33% towards employee pension scheme.

EMPLOYEES' STATE INSURANCE

- ESI is a social security measure which tries to protect employees and their dependents from unexpected incidents like accidents, illness, death etc.

© 2014 Aithent. All rights reserved.

- Employees are covered for an ESI benefit whose per month salary is upto Rs 15000/-. The employee's contribution amount is 1.75% of salary (Basic+HRA+Spl allowance+Conv.) and employer contributes amount is 4.75% of salary (Basic+HRA+Spl allowance+Conv.).

© 2014 Aithent. All rights reserved.