Version: 1.0/2014

This document is the exclusive property of Aithent India. Printing, copying, circulation or distribution of this document, or any part thereof without the prior written permission of Office of Professional Management is strictly prohibited.

OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this set of rules is to enable employees, be they full-time or contactor status who works at customer locations, to handle their email communications in ways that conform to Aithent requirements as well as comply with the procedures that the customer has in place as it regards email policies.

SCOPE

All employees of Aithent.

EMAILS ON CUSTOMER MATTERS

- When communicating via email with individuals within the customer organization, make use of that organization's email format and signature structure. If Aithent personnel are included in the distribution the customer's email format and signature style is to be used.
- Check with your site supervisor or contact to learn the customer's email signature and format. If the customer includes a legal or confidentiality disclaimer, make use of that as appropriate.
- Use the signature on all such emails that you originates. Use of the signature on replies will be dependent upon the customer's practices. Whatever that may be, follow it.
- If the customer does not require use of his/her organization's email signature/format make use of the Aithent email signature and format as provided below.

EMAILS ON AITHENT MATTERS

- Emails created by use that are sent to Aithent personnel – on matters relating to or pertinent to Aithent – must make use of the Aithent email signature and format.
- Note, if any customer personnel are included in the distribution of the email, regardless of its nature, use the customer's email signature and format.
